5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7

8 JONATHAN LEE RICHES,
9 Plaintiff.

NO. CV-09-00154-JLQ
ORDER DISMISSING ACTION

10
11 vs.

12 THE GUINNESS BOOK OF WORLD
13 RECORDS, et al.,
14 Defendants.

15 On May 19, 2009, the court received from the Plaintiff, a prisoner at the Federal 16 Medical Center in Lexington, Kentucky, a document entitled "Preliminary Injunction, 17 Temporary Restraining Order, TRO, Trademark Infringement, 28 USC 1331" (Ct. Rec.
18 1).

19 The claim is defective in many respects. The Plaintiff has not alleged jurisdiction
20 beyond the cursory reference to 28 USC § 1331 in the caption, nor has the Plaintiff
21 alleged a proper theory of venue justifying the bringing of this case in the Eastern District
22 of Washington. In addition to these technical defects, a person such as Mr. Riches, who 23 describes himself as a person who "flush[es] out more suits than a sewer," writes "legal 24 masterpieces," and plans to "start a lawsuit 101 shop" (Ct. Rec. 1, 2) should know that the 25 rambling nature of the hand-written Complaint cannot, in any form or fashion, be 26 construed as stating a claim upon which relief can be granted. The Plaintiff alleges that 27 the Defendant's under-representation of the actual number of lawsuits he has filed "hurt
28 my feelings and violates [sic] my civil rights." Id. No court, regardless of its empathy, or

1 lack thereof, would find that the bruising of the Plaintiff's apparently fragile ego
2 constitutes a federally redressable grievance. A District Court must sua sponte dismiss a
3 Complaint that fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. Omar v. Sea-
4 Land Service, Inc., 813 F.2d 986, 991 (9th Cir. 1987).

5 The case at hand appears to be just one more in a pattern of pleadings filed by this
6 Plaintiff in a distant jurisdiction for no apparent reason. It is another in an inexorably
7 long line of filings from the Plaintiff who alleges he spends "sleepless nights suing the 8 world." Ct. Rec. 1, 2.

9 This court previously cautioned Mr. Riches in a prior frivolous filings in this court
10 that further such filings could result in the court prohibiting his further filings.
11 Accordingly,

12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

13 1. The Complaint (Ct. Rec. 1) and the claims therein are DISMISSED with 14 prejudice. The court recommends that the Plaintiff heed his own sage advice when he 15 writes that he is "thinking about retiring from writing lawsuits for awhile and [sic] give 16 my fingers rehabilitation." Ct. Rec. 1, 2.

17 2. The Plaintiff has ignored this court's prior admonishments set forth in In Re
18 DeAtley, 06-CV-0278 (Ct. Rec. 578) and Riches v. Peanut Corporation of America, 09-
19 CV-00041 (Ct. Rec. 2). Except as herein provided, Plaintiff is hereby enjoined from 20 filing future actions or pleadings in this court without prior consent. Failure to 21 comply with this prohibition may result in civil and criminal penalties.

22 3. The Clerk of the Court is directed to create and maintain a miscellaneous file,
23 assigned to the undersigned judge, with the general title "In the matter of Jonathan Lee
24 Riches." The miscellaneous file shall serve as the repository of this order and all
25 documents previously proffered for filing by Mr. Riches covered by the terms of this 26 order for which authority to file has not been granted.

- 1           4.     If Plaintiff seeks to file any further pro se actions in this district, he MUST 2           comply with the following procedures:
- 3           a.     He must Submit a "Petition Seeking Leave to File Pro Se Action" with 4           the miscellaneous file number assigned him indicated in the caption.

8           United States District Court for the E. D. Washington in the amount 9           of the then current civil action filing fee. The current fee is $350.
- 10          5.     The Petition Seeking Leave to File Pro Se Action must contain the following 11          information:
- 12          a.     a statement advising the court whether any defendant to the lawsuit
13          was a party, or was in any way involved in any prior lawsuit filed by 14          Mr. Riches, and if so, in what capacity;
- 15          b.     a list of all lawsuits to which Mr. Riches is or was a party; the name 16          and citation of each case; the status of the lawsuit; and the disposition;
- 17          c.     a list of all federal and state cases in which a judgment was rendered 18          against Mr. Riches, if any; the name and citation of each case; and the 19          amount of the judgment;
- 20          d.     a list of all federal and state cases in which a judgment was rendered 21          in favor of Mr. Riches, if any; the name and citation of each case; and 22          the amount of the judgment; and
- 23          e.     a statement advising the court that Mr. Riches has exhausted all 24          available administrative remedies.
- 25
- 26
- 27          6.     The Affidavit shall be in proper legal form and is to contain the following 28          recitals:

- 1 a. "the claims presented have never been raised by me and disposed of 2 by any federal or state court; that to the best of my knowledge the 3 claim or claims are not frivolous or taken in bad faith;"
- 4 b. that "the claim or claims are well grounded in fact and warranted by 5 existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification,
6 or reversal of existing law;" and
- 7 c. "that the lawsuit is not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to 8 harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the 9 amount and cost of litigation."

- 10 7. Upon receipt of the Petition, the court will review and either approve or 11 disapprove of the Petition by order. Failure to comply with the procedures 12 and principles mandated by this order shall be sufficient grounds for denying 13 the petition for leave to file and/ or for the imposition of sanctions. If the 14 court enters an order granting the Petition, the District Court executive shall 15 cause the complaint and materials to be filed as of the date of the Order.

16 IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk is hereby directed to enter this Order, enter
17 judgment of dismissal, furnish copies to Mr. Riches, and forward copies to the other 18 Judges of this district, including Magistrate Judges, create a Miscellaneous File for Mr.
19 Riches, and close this case file.

20 DATED this 2nd day of June, 2009.
